The progression of rider entries in Hunter/Equitation over a period of time usually goes Walk/Trot, Beginner Crossrails, Short Stirrup, Intermediate Rider, Modified Rider, Low Children's/Adult, Children's/Adult, and High Children's/Adult. Once a rider has moved up a division it is not appropriate to move back down. (intermediate to modified then go back to intermediate) It is the rider/trainer's responsibility to read class specs and contact show management before show with any questions. The show management is NOT responsible to proofread your entries. If an anomaly arises the show management will investigate. Points may be forfeited if a rider is entered in a division, they are not eligible for.
